POLICIES & CANCELLATION

- No airport transfer REFUND applies if a student cannot locate the driver and makes their own way to the host. The student must call our emergency numbers NOT the host & follow our instructions. We will contact the driver and make sure that student and driver link up.
- Notice to change hosts will only apply after the initial 2 weeks settling in period & will incur a relocation fee. Change of host after the initial 4 week booking period will be treated as relocation.
- Students who pay their hosts directly after the initial 4 weeks are required to pay fortnightly in advance. Hosts will provide receipts for all direct payments received.
- Pursuant contract between the host and the student (also referred to as the two week notice contract), either the host or the student must give at least two weeks notice on their intention to terminate the contract prior to the contract being terminated. This notice must be given in writing, and the terminating party must be able to confirm the notice has been received and acknowledged. Auzzie Families will not be held liable for a breach of the two week notice contract by either the host or the student. The host and the student are to conduct themselves in good faith and with integrity with respect to all matters referred to and incidental to the two week notice contract.
- Cancellation two weeks or less prior to arrival will incur charges of one week host funds + Service fee + Placement Fee + Guardianship Set Up Fee.
- Cancellation more than two weeks prior to arrival will incur a charge for Placement fee + Service fee + Guardianship Set Up Fee
- Cancellation due to visa refusal will incur a service fee of $120. Evidence required.
- All claims for refunds or compensation will only be considered if received in writing in the first 4 weeks.
